

MINUTES OF THE COMMISSION MEETING

NOVEMBER 20, 1973

A. The Commission considered the following cases:

Thomas F. Edwards, Jr., non-filing October 30, 1973 - $100 fine.

Joseph T. DeVizio, no bank account, no campaign treasurer - $250 fine, no October 30, 1973 report - $100 fine.

John N. Dudash, improper filing - admonition

John Giammarco, no filing October 30 - admonition

Lois Gingerelli, no filing October 12 - admonition

B. N. J. Federation of Republican Women, further information required.

C. United Steelworkers of America, District 9, Legislative Education Committee, further information required.

D. Matter of Morton Salkind, further information required.

E. Late filings - Gubernatorial candidates - 1, Senatorial candidates - 13, Assembly candidates - 23, County candidates - 20.

A letter of explanation is to be required of each candidate.

F. Municipal candidates, non-filers, are to be brought before the Commission, after the third filing is complete.

G. Computer programming and systems design were discussed.

H. Sandman complaint. It was suggested that we report to the Republican State Committee, if this turns out to be the case after the last filing, that the Byrne report shows no overage. We would then inquire of the GOP State Committee of information in their possession which would support their allegations.

Meeting adjourned.
