On a motion by Vice Chairman Timpone, seconded by Commissioner Saunders, and passed by a vote of 3-0, the Commission approved the Public Session Minutes of February 20, 2015.

5. Executive Director's Report

- A. Annual Lobbying Analytical Press Release – Executive Director Brindle announced that staff has summarized the information obtained from the lobbying annual reports. In all, lobbyists spent $58 million in 2014, which is an eight percent drop from the previous year. In particular, he pointed to less activity by the New Jersey Education Association. The Executive Director characterized the pattern in yearly lobbyist spending as an “ebb and flow,” noting that expenditures typically range between $55 and $60 million.
- B. Relocation of Commission Offices – The Executive Director stated that the Commission is still slated to move to its new location at the end of 2015. He stated that the roof of the building is currently under repair, which has led to a delay in obtaining a certificate of occupancy.
- C. Computer Upgrade – Executive Director Brindle reported that work has begun on DataMiner, the software that will be used for the document storage and scanning aspect of the upgraded system. He added that of the total $2 million project cost, $1 million has been spent, while staff remains diligent in allocating the remaining $1 million to enhance and add to the Commission's electronic filing capability.
- D. Campaign Finance Issues – The Executive Director notified the Commission that the U.S. Department of Justice has announced an increase in scrutiny of the relationship between candidates and independent spending groups and super PACs. In particular, Executive Director Brindle pointed to the recent guilty plea made by a campaign operative that coordinated $325,000 spent by a super PAC with a congressional campaign that was run by that operative.

In addition, the Executive Director noted that the U.S. Supreme Court rejected an appeal from an organization of opponents of same-sex marriage in California who had sought to keep donors secret. The fact that the Supreme Court denied certiorari can be seen as another expression of support for disclosure of contributor information, he said.

- E. Pay-to-Play – Executive Director Brindle notified the Commission that the Business Entity Annual Disclosure Statements are due on March 30, and that an analytical press release will be made available in early April.
- F. Training Seminars – Executive Director Brindle announced that staff will conduct the following training seminars:
- Pay-to-Play Business Entity Training: 3/13 and 3/25;
  - Candidate Committee Treasurer Training: 3/18, 3/31, and 4/23;
  - Political Party Committee Training: 3/26; and,
  - Electronic Filing Training: 3/19, 4/2, and 4/28.

G. Annual Report – The Executive Director informed the commissioners that the annual report will be available to them for their approval at the April Commission meeting. He continued that the report is due to be filed with the Legislature on May 1, 2015.

H. Future Meetings Schedule

No members of the public appeared to testify at the public hearing held on February 17, 2015. One written comment was received from Richard J. Edgar. Associate Legal Director Michelle Levy noted that the suggestions submitted by Mr. Edgar would first require legislative action.

On a motion by Vice Chairman Timpone, seconded by Commissioner Saunders, and passed by a vote of 3-0, the Commission approved the new amendments concerning elimination of the requirement to file duplicate copies of reports with county clerks.
