December 16, 1983

The Election Law Enforcement Commission has released the names of six political committees active in the 1983 primary election that were reprimanded or fined for failure to comply with the Campaign Contributions and Expenditures Reporting Act.

The reprimands and fines were imposed for late filing of campaign reports with the Commission. Final Decisions have been mailed to all the political committees that appear on the attached list. The publication of this list is part of revised Commission procedures, begun with the 1978 primary election, designed to foster compliance, enhance disclosure and make enforcement more effective.

Factors considered by the Commission in levying fines include the number of days the filing is late and any previous violation that are on record with the Commission. The Commission has imposed fines with two figures, for example "$50/25." This means that the Commission has imposed a fine of $50, which fine will be reduced to $25 if payment is received within thirty days after service of the Final Decision.

Copies of the Complaints and Final Decisions are available at the Commission offices at the National State Bank Building, 28 W. State Street, Suite 1215, Trenton, NJ.
