PRESS ADVISORY

Executive Director Frederick M. Herrmann announced today that the New Jersey Election Law Enforcement Commission is proposing new rules and amendments concerning the public financing of primary and general elections for the office of Governor.

According to Herrmann, among other provisions, the proposed new rules and amendments:

- Allow the use of personal funds by non-publicly financed candidates to meet all or part of the threshold qualifying amount of contributions to qualify for participation in debates;
- Prohibit loan repayment by non-publicly financed candidates to meet any part of the threshold qualifying amount of expenditures to qualify for participation in debates;
- Require notification by a Gubernatorial debate sponsor to the Commission of changes in debate plans and Commission approval of such changes;
- Provide that the Commission shall consider in a subsequent debate sponsorship application whether or not in a previous gubernatorial election, a sponsor applicant had made and notified the Commission of changes and received approval of such changes;
- Remove obsolete references to photocopies;
- Conform the language of N.J.A.C. 19:25-16.19(d) to parallel N.J.A.C. 19:25-15.18(d);
- Correct a typographical error in N.J.A.C. 19:25-15.49(a)2; and
- Restructure N.J.A.C. 19:25-15.17 and N.J.A.C. 19:25-16.18 to provide clarity.
